#managing user accounts adduser is recommended to mod users info use usermod to delete user use userdel must use sudo to add user must use userdel -r to delete home directory and more ##etc/default/useraddfile useradd -D to view what is inside ##etc/passwd file info on every account ##etc/shadowfile has users passwords ##etc/gshadow has group passwords ##getent can be used to view info on users account/password #Maintaining passwords passwd + user passwd -l and -u lock/unlock

accounts ##How to create an alias ex...

```
• alias ll='ls -alF'
```

alias + word + = + command ##Setting up the enviroment setting up the enviroment is using shell scripting ##querying users who -aH = can describe info on personal account id username = information last pulls a list of users they logged in and out of the system